Associate members shall not be represented among the voting members of the Board of Directors, but may be represented on the Advisory Board of Librarians.

Fees paid by associate members shall be on a contractual basis and shall be based on services rendered.

Any nonprofit library may become an associate member of the Cooperative.

ARTICLE II GOVERNING BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Identity

The governing body of the Cooperative shall be a Board of Directors consisting of nine (9) voting members selected by member library boards. Any adult resident of the Cooperative's service area, ~~who is not an employee of a member public library~~, and who has been selected by a member library board to represent that respective library, shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors.

All member libraries shall appoint one representative to the Board. The nine (9) voting members shall be determined annually by a rotation system. Board members shall rotate within three groups that are based on population served. The population and number of board representatives for each group shall be as follows:

- Group #1: Number of voting representatives: Three (3)
Population served: 0 – 3,999
- Group #2: Number of voting representatives: Three (3)
Population served: 4,000 – 11,999
- Group #3: Number of voting representatives: Three (3)
Population served: 12,000 and up

The first rotation order, within each group, shall be an A-Z list of libraries that are members of the Cooperative at the time the rotation order is first determined. A new member shall be added at the end of the member's population group. New members shall be added in alphabetical order at the end of the appropriate population group.

A library may choose to pass on the opportunity to serve on the Cooperative Board. Their place within the rotation remains the same, and another chance to serve will not occur until the rotation comes back around to that library. A library filling a term of less than one year will be eligible for a full term of its own.

Terms of service for the voting members of the Board of Directors shall run from October 1 through September 30. Each year one of the nine voting board members from each of the three population groups will rotate off the voting board. If a library has not appointed a board member by the Annual Meeting proceeding the term of service, the rotation shall go back through the population group until there is the appropriate number of voting members within that group. If the total number of voting position(s) within that group cannot be filled, then the voting position(s) shall be from the next larger population group, and so forth until there are nine voting board members.

The absence of a cooperative board member from three consecutive cooperative board meetings will be cause for terminating that library's representation on the board. A library will be notified when its representative has missed two consecutive board meetings. If a representative from that library does not attend the next cooperative board meeting, the library will have 30 days to appoint a new member or lose their seat on the board and their representation until their next turn in rotation.

The Director of the Cooperative shall be an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors without voting privilege.

Section 2: Duties

The cooperative board is a body corporate and may sue and be sued.

Duties of the Board of Directors shall be those provided in Section 8(2) (a) through (j) of P.A. 89, 1977 as amended:

- (a) Operate the cooperative library and manage and control the Cooperative's funds and property;
- (b) Select a chairperson;
- (c) Establish, maintain, and operate services for public libraries in the Cooperative's area;
- (d) Appoint a director or coordinator to administer the Cooperative, fix that person's compensation, and delegate to that person those powers the delegation of which is in the best interest of the Cooperative, including the power to hire necessary employees;
- (e) Acquire books, periodicals, library materials,

- equipment, supplies or other personal property by purchase, installment purchase contract, or lease with or without an option to purchase, or enter into a loan agreement and borrow money for that purpose;
- (f) Erect buildings or acquire real property, including buildings and fixtures, by purchase, land contract, installment purchase contract, or lease with or without an option to purchase, or enter into a loan agreement and borrow money for that purpose;
 - (g) Enter into contracts to receive service from or give service to libraries in the state, including public, school, academic, cooperative, or special libraries and political sub-divisions of the state;
 - (h) Exclusively control expenditures for the Cooperative library;
 - (i) Accept gifts and donations of property for the benefit of the Cooperative and for the purposes for which donated;
 - (j) Adopt by-laws and rules not inconsistent with this act for its own government and do those things necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

The Board of Directors of the Superiorland Library Cooperative does not have any jurisdiction over the property or management of local libraries or their boards.

Section 3: Limitation of Section 2 (e) and (f).

All of the following shall apply to an installment purchase contract, land contract, loan agreement or lease purchase contract entered into pursuant to Section 2 (e) or (f) above:

- (a) The contract shall not constitute an indebtedness of any member of the cooperative library within any constitutional charter, or statutory limitation.
- (b) Principal and interest are payable solely from the revenues of the cooperative library.
- (c) No member of the cooperative library shall pledge its full faith and credit to the payment of principal and interest on the contract.
- (d) Interest on the unpaid principal amount of the contract shall not be treated as excluded from gross income under the Internal Revenue Code.

An installment purchase contract, land contract, lease purchase contract, or loan agreement entered into shall contain a statement setting forth the provisions of this Section 3 (a) through (d).

Section 4: Limitation of personal liability of volunteer directors.

No volunteer director of the Cooperative shall be personally liable to the Cooperative or its members for monetary damages for breach of the director's fiduciary duty; provided, however, this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any of the following:

- (a) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Cooperative, Cooperative or its members;
- (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
- (c) a violation of Section 551(1) of the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act;
- (d) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit;
- (e) an act or omission occurring before January 1, 1988; or,
- (f) an act of omission that is grossly negligent.

ARTICLE III OFFICERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Identity

The Officers shall be a president, a vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer elected at the annual meeting from among the nine voting board members, who shall be serving on the Board of Directors during the fiscal year immediately following the annual meeting.

Section 2: Term of Office

Officers shall serve a term of one year from the annual meeting at which they are elected and until their successors are duly elected.

The Officers shall perform the duties generally associated with their offices and such others as may be designated by the Board.

ARTICLE IV FISCAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1: Fiscal Year

The fiscal year for the Cooperative shall be from October 1 through September 30.

Section 2: Funding

Funds for the Cooperative shall be kept in separate accounts from any local library. The Board must approve an annual budget and may review expenditures at any time.

The Cooperative shall complete an annual audit report. The audit will be accepted by the Board of Directors and filed at the Library of Michigan within ten (10) months following the close of each fiscal year.

The Cooperative shall be funded by direct state aid authorized by P.A. 89, 1977, and by indirect state aid paid by member libraries to the Cooperative.

The Cooperative may also receive state and federal grants in addition to those mentioned above and private funds as available.

State aid paid to the Cooperative may be used for any Board approved expenditures. Member libraries and associate members may contract with the Cooperative for additional services. Other libraries, library cooperatives, and political subdivisions of the state may contract with the Superiorland Library Cooperative for services. Fees for services will be determined by the Board.

Financial statements will be presented at each Board meeting.

Section 2: Policy on Disputes.

Superiorland Library Cooperative is committed to resolving disputes at the local level. The following procedures will be followed:

1. The director of the public library concerned will meet with the director of the cooperative and attempt in good faith to resolve any problems.

2. If a resolution of the problem is still not possible, the board of each library concerned, following a review of the issue, will petition the cooperative director and board in writing for redress of the matters in dispute specifying the remedies sought.

3. The cooperative director will present the petition to the Cooperative Board within 90 days along with his or her recommendations. The cooperative director will report the Board's decision to all parties concerned, promptly and in writing.

When a dispute cannot be resolved on the local level, the Department of Education [or Library of Michigan parent agency] may hear the case. The decision of the Department of Education [or Library of Michigan parent agency] shall be final.
